

cool enough

almost monday

Here they come, here they come
Silhouettes in the car lights after midnight
Talking loud through the crowd make your way into the spotlight
Get your hair right

Summer flex, summer flex, put it on the internet
Burn so bright but you're never really feelin' it
Your friends look nice but your clique's so tight
Ain't nobody getting into it

Listen now it's the sound of someone you're trying to be like, be like

Am I
For your love
Sorry if I don't fit your description
Here we are
Playing dumb
I don't want to be part of your picture

Ooh nah nah nah nah
Somebody tell me, am I c-c-cool enough?
Ooh nah nah nah nah
Somebody tell me, am I c-c-cool enough?

Coming down from the clouds, do you miss the attention
Loss of connection
Got ahead of yourself and you lost your direction
A digital affection

Summer flex, summer flex, put it on the internet
Burn so bright but you're never really feelin' it
Your friends look nice but your clique's so tight
Ain't nobody getting into it

Took a while to receive but you're getting the message, the message

Am I
Cool enough
For your love
Sorry if I don't fit your description
Here we are
Playing dumb
I don't want to be part of your picture

Ooh nah nah nah nah
Somebody tell me, am I c-c-cool enough?
Ooh nah nah nah nah
Somebody tell me, am I c-c-cool enough?

Give me your affection
That dollar bill infection
That hundred car collection
That million dollar complexion
Give me your affection
That dollar bill infection
That hundred car collection

That million dollar complexion

Am I

Cool enough

For your love

Sorry if I don't fit your description

Cool enough

Nah nah nah nah

Somebody tell me, am I c-c-cool enough?

Cool enough

Nah nah nah nah

Somebody tell me, am I c-c-cool enough?
