

Breakthrough

Aloe Blacc

Don't tell me you ain't never made no mistakes
I've been known for bending the rules until they break
Don't tell me you ain't never had no regrets
There've been times I rolled the dice before I placed a bet
I've done things that I can't take back
Barreling down a one way track
When it feels like everything's breaking down

It's time for a breakthrough
'Cause what doesn't break you
Is bound to make you
How long will it take you
Until you finally breakthrough

Everyday is another chance for redemption
I paid my debts for the dirty deeds that no one needs to mention
For all the pain I've caused I apologize
With deep regret please forgive but don't forget I've opened up my eyes
I'm not the same that I was way back
But now I'm getting my life on track
When it feels like everything's breaking down

It's time for a breakthrough
'Cause what doesn't break you
Is bound to make you
How long will it take you
Until you finally breakthrough

Well, I'm ready to make a change
It's gonna be an uphill climb
Taking it one step at a time
On a straight and narrow line

I've done things that I can't take back
I'm gonna get my life on track
When it feels like everything's breaking down
Down down down down

It's time for a breakthrough
Cause what doesn't break you
Is bound to make you
How long will it take you
Until you find it breakthrough

Yeah
I'm gonna breakthrough
I'm gonna breakthrough
I'm gonna breakthrough
I'm gonna breakthrough...
