

When you're running out of time
And you think you'll never cross the finish line
And you're looking for a sign to let you know
You're not alone, oh
When the ocean lost its tide
And the boat that you are floating on is drifting nigh
And you're waiting for some wind to fill your sail
I'm here to tell you

Wherever you go
And whether you're high or low
I'll be there for you
I'm in your corner
If you're far from home
And baby, you find that you're on your own
I'll be there for you
I'm in your corner

When you're living inside out
And it's hard to find a home within your house
And you wish you could remember how to hope
I'm always close

Hey, wherever you go
And whether you're high or low
I'll be there for you
I'm in your corner
If you're far from home
And baby, you find that you're on your own
I'll be there for you
I'm in your corner

When the tears burn in your eyes
And the ground beneath your feet is dead and dry
And you're praying for some rain
To wash you clean

Wherever you go
And whether you're high or low (Whether you're high or low)
I'll be there for you (I'll be there for you)
I'm in your corner (I'm in your corner)
If you're far from home (If you're far from home)
And baby, you find that you're on your own
I'll be there for you
I'm in your corner

I'm in your corner
I'm in your corner
I'm in your corner
