

Don't Ya

Alok

Tell me why you have to go
It may seem so hard to me
'Cause since you're not around, babe
I can barely breathe

Tell me why you had to be
My greatest remedy
Maybe that's the reason why
I can't fall asleep

Damn, show your loving hands
I miss your dirty pants
And now I've heard you beg
Are you ready to attack?

But you will regret, won't ya?
You make me sick, won't ya?
You'll let me down, won't ya?
Do you love me now, don't ya?

(Do you love me now, don't ya?...)

Tell me why you have to go
It may seem so hard to me
'Cause since you're not around, babe
I can barely breathe

Tell me why you had to be
My greatest remedy
Maybe that's the reason why
I can't fall asleep

Damn, show your loving hands
I miss your dirty pants
And now I've heard you beg
Are you ready to attack?

But you will regret, won't ya?
You make me sick, won't ya?
You'll let me down, won't ya?
Do you love me now, don't ya?

(Do you love me now, don't ya?...)
