

Surrender

Alok

Waving a white flag outside the castle wall
I can't hold it together
I surrender
And all these tears I've cried and I've cried them all
I can't hold it together
I surrender

Every hope held high I watch them fall
No I can't hold it together
I surrender
I don't want to fight this anymore
I give into your pleasure
I surrender

No I can't hold it together
I can't hold it
I surrender
I surrender

Every hope held high I watch them fall
No I can't hold it together
I surrender
