Tsunami

Alok

Was doing fine until you came with no warning
No one told me all it takes is a moment
Now every time I leave the house it is pouring
Overflowing in an ocean

I know the feeling of rain on my skin
But never felt this way
I'm going deeper, don't know how to swim
Just pull me closer, baby, pull me in

I feel it rising in my body
Zero to hundred when you call me
Head underwater, hear my heartbeat
Each time you're touching me, tsunami

I feel it rising in my body
Zero to hundred when you call me
Head underwater, hear my heartbeat
Each time you're touching me, tsunami

Each time you're touching me, tsunami
Each time you're touching me, tsunami

Was doing fine until you came with no warning
No one told me all it takes is a moment
Now every time I leave the house it is pouring
Overflowing in an ocean

I know the feeling of rain on my skin
But never felt this way
I'm going deeper, don't know how to swim
Just pull me closer, baby, pull me in

I feel it rising in my body
Zero to hundred when you call me
Head underwater, hear my heartbeat
Each time you're touching me, tsunami

I feel it rising in my body
Zero to hundred when you call me
Head underwater, hear my heartbeat
Each time you're touching me, tsunami

Each time you're touching me, tsunami
Each time you're touching me, tsunami
