Typical

Alok

It's so typical
Call me cynical
Love's conditional
It's like I'm invisible
It's so typical
Poise is difficult
We're not physical
So typical, typical

She said
Give me that taste, night into days
Give me the highs I love
It's always the same, screaming my name
Yeah, you know what I want
You made me a sinner
Can't look in the mirror
Your love is a thriller, eh

You hold me, you hold me, you hold me like you know
You're only, you're only playing this game 'cause you lonely
Oh, you're playing this game 'cause you lonely
Lonely, lonely

It's so typical
Call me cynical
Love's conditional
It's like I'm invisible
It's so typical
Poise is difficult
We're not physical
So typical, typical

It's so typical
Call me cynical
Love's conditional
It's like I'm invisible
It's so typical
Poise is difficult
We're not physical
So typical, typical

'Cause I'm not the same, counting the days
Don't recognize myself
You lie to my face, asking for grace
Giving you what you want
You made me a sinner
Can't look in the mirror
Your love is a thriller, yeah

You hold me, you hold me, you hold me like you know
You're only, you're only playing this game 'cause you lonely
Lonely, lonely

It's so typical
Call me cynical
Love's conditional

It's like I'm invisible
It's so typical
Poise is difficult
We're not physical
So typical, typical

It's so typical
Call me cynical
Love's conditional
It's like I'm invisible
It's so typical
Poise is difficult
We're not physical
So typical, typical
