Alone With You

Alpha Rev

Desperation is replaced
By the business of good intentions
Now the path I'm left to face
Is the length of time I'm treading water

I've been cracked enough to break
Bruised, reduced, enough to scatter
As I step into this place
The knife, the rose, the sparrow come together

Alone with you
Amidst all the weather
I'm alone with you
There is nothing better

On the brink of a fading heart
Another day I lead forgotten
Trying to keep up staying sharp
Lately feel the blind abandon

I'm alone with you
Amidst all the weather
I'm alone with you
For there is, for there is no other

For there is no other
There is no other
There is no other
There is no other
