

Changeling

Alpha Rev

I'll take it
Sitting makes me alright
And I don't want to let it go tonight
I am falling
And it softens the blow
Who am I if I just let it go

But I see you waitin' for me
Through the open door
I see you waitin' for me
Through the open door

What matters
Well you matter to me
It's been too long and I can't let it be

I'm tryin'

But if I don't know
I will never leave this hell
Oh

But I see you waitin' for me
Through the open door
I see you waitin' for me
Through the open door

But I see you waitin' for me
Through the open door
I see you waitin' for me
Through the open door
