Heaven

Alpha Rev

Coffee at 6am,
Listening to your convictions,
How to be a better man,
This day of our condition.

Watching the war inside,
Voices that never rested,
Keeping you up at night,
Saying the words you hated.

Now that your earth and stone,
Whispered to me, "Hold on, on."

Do you know what is life,
Life without heaven?
Do you know?
Flatline, ohh.

Steady as she goes captain,
There's no doubt of your courage,
Careful the waves of sadness,
I would have helped you through it.

You wanted to taste the wind,
Open the door to oceans,
Now, don't drown.

Do you know what is life,
Life without heaven?
Do you know?
Flatline, ohh.

Do you know what is life,
Life without heaven?
Do you know?

Sometimes it feels like,
I wanna run and hide,
Do you know what it's like to begin again?
Do you know what it's like to begin again?

This is life not heaven,
This is life not heaven,
This is life not heaven,
Until it's over.
