

I'm A Refugee

Alpha Rev

Are you an honest man
Did you make a sacrifice
Was it really dangerous
Is it just a bunch of lies
Are we the same
'Cause you call me the enemy
Finished eyes and cross them tears
She'll have no problem using me

You have no problem using me
You had no problem using me
She had no problem using me
Had no problem using me
Have no problem using me

I'm an alien
Lookin' for a place to love
Make it work before my time is up
Something left for younger ones
Somehow we're all the same
Aren't we all escapin' hell
Aren't we here to find a name
Aren't we all from somewhere else

Aren't we all from somewhere else
Aren't we all from somewhere else
Aren't we all from somewhere else
Aren't we all from somewhere else

Are you the one?
Are you the one?
Will you turn me, turn me, turn me away
'Cause I'm a refugee
Well are you the one?
Are you the one?
Will you take me, take me, take me in
'Cause I'm a refugee
And I need you

Are you the one?
Are you the one?
Will you turn me, turn me, turn me away
'Cause I'm a refugee, oh
Well are you the one?
Are you the one?
Will you take me, take me, take me in
'Cause I'm a refugee
Yeah 'cause I'm a refugee
'Cause I'm a refugee
Oh, 'cause I'm a refugee
Oh, 'cause I'm a refugee
Yeah 'cause I'm a refugee
