My Evolution

Alpha Rev

I'm hiding now, inside my head
Wrapped in layers of the onion
And I'm someone else, to all of you
Trapped in the noise of my emotion

Take a good look at yourself
And I don't remember who I am anymore
Take a good look at yourself
Do you remember?

Escape the pain, under the mud
I'm not what I had envisioned
When you find me here, my growing years
And on this cross of evolution

And I fall
And I'll rise up
I fall
And I'll rise
As I rise

Take a good look at yourself
I don't remember who I am anymore
Take a good look at yourself
Do you remember?
Do you remember?

Take a good look at myself
And I'm not you anymore
Take a good look at myself
I must remember
I must remember
I must remember
You

Take a good, good look at yourself
'Cause I remember
'Cause I remember
You
