

You Are The Peacemakers

Alpha Rev

They say the earth is round but what about the universe
They say war is good but what about for the rest of us
They say I'm too young and too poor to make any waves
But I'm sayin' this is your day

'Cause you are the peacemakers
Superheroes of lovin'
And you bring a little more life
'Cause we're not enemies
We're just afraid of the difference
We just need a little more time

I love my house 'cause I live in it
I love my flowers 'cause I've been growin' them
We're not so different if you don't look for it
You see, you love your house 'cause you live in it

One day, we'll be that way

'Cause you are the peacemakers
Superheroes of lovin'
And you bring a little more life
'Cause we're not enemies
We're just afraid of the difference
We just need a little more time

War something that should only be played in cards
War something that should only be played in cards
War something that should only be played in cards
Don't I know [?]

You are the peacemakers
Superheroes of lovin'
And you bring a little more life
'Cause we're not enemies
We're just afraid of the difference
We just need a little more time
Just need a little more time
