

Deadwing

Alpha Wolf

This darkness before me
Is the last thing I'll see
With this rope around my neck
And no ground beneath my feet

I'm just a hollow shell
With no place on this earth
You've got your demons
But my count is worse

I want out
Of this life that I lead
This life that I'm living
Is a fucking disease

I want out
I'm sick of this shit
Its just day after day
Until I fucking slip
Yes I'm a coward
I don't belong in this place
A fucking nobody
I'm a fucking disgrace
Death will find my place

Knot after knot
In this fucking rope
I'll leave a note
You've got your demons
But my count is worse
You've got your demons
But my count is worse

With a whimper
Behind these jaded eyes
I'm not afraid to die
Cause you'll be stuck in this hell
That I leave behind
