

The Lonely Bones

Alpha Wolf

Bittersweet and I feel so toxic
This could never work 'cause we're so lovesick
I watched the colour of your eyes fade
Bittersweet, I was too weak
I let go
In ash and decay
We'll be okay

I stood still in time
Let me fear devour me
My grip loosened in an instance of uncertainty

Winter
Love died in the jaws of frostbite
Winter
This chill consumes me

How many times can you break my heart before it stops beating?

I let go
In ash and decay
We'll be okay

Your absence deep like a cut throat
Can't fill the hole with void shaped shadows
I was pulled apart and put inside a box by everything we could've been

I feel empty

How many times can you break my heart before it stops beating?
How many times can you break my heart before it stops bleeding?

I'm a black rose wilting
Never to bloom again
These fragments in my chest are all I have left
Expose the nerve
Let it bleed
Please stay with me

My lover
Oh my lover
There's something you should hear
My lover
Oh my lover
I failed your heart again

My lover
Oh my lover
I'll hide the blood we spilt
My lover
Oh my lover
Forget the blood
