

Stumbled

Alpha

I can't change what i've done
It's luck, it's fate
I just don't go there
Took me since i was young
Accept, embrace, i'm on my way here
Over and over and over i stumbled
Following paths that were heavy with dreams
Over and over i'm humbled
These are the paths that have led me right here
I don't have regrets
It's all made me me
I'm placing my bets on having you hear
I'm home, my love, home
I can't change what i've done
It's luck, it's fate
I just don't go there
Took me since i was young
