

Fever!

Alphaville

Raging horses in the darkness
When she's crawling in I'm waking
And her demons soon get lazy
And the world melts without aching

Senorita in a funhouse
With no idea where to turn to
If you ever recognize her
Smash the mirror to escape her

She's obsession, she's a fever
Almost perfect, I couldn't leave her
A killer in the mirror
The answer to romancers

She's obsession, she's a fever
Almost perfect, I couldn't leave her
A killer in the mirror
A killer in the mirror
The answer to romancers

She's obsession, she's a fever
Almost perfect, I couldn't leave her
A killer in the mirror
A killer in the mirror
The answer to romancers

Mmm, and I wonder about the times we had
Oh, leaving from there was always so sad

Moons are creeping thru her alleys
Angels play with hearts and halos
And the snow wafts somehow spinning
'Cross the frostings on her windows

Bodies sweat and walls are trembling
Hands grip chains both fast and frightening
Naked beasts 'gainst metal barriers
One last puff at end of lightning

She's obsession, she's a fever
Almost perfect, I couldn't leave her
A killer in the mirror
A killer in the mirror
The answer to romancers

A killer in the mirror
A killer in the mirror
The answer to romancers

And I wonder about the times we had
Leaving from there was always so sad

A silent spectres
Face upon face

And inquiring eyes scan
The abysmal space

And I wonder about the times we had
Leaving from there was always so sad
