

Days

Alphawezen

There were days when I was fine
There were days without a rhyme
There were nights when I was lost
Even nights when I went nuts

How can I wait for you
If you will never come
How can I forget about you
If i can't live without you
How can I wait for you
When will you ever come
How will we survive
If we forget about the meaning of the light