

Need Not Be

Alpine

Sugar, sugar, be my dumb flesh delight on my open chest
Glitter hides from my mind in bed
Imagination takes place right now
I see you look into that blue, blue, blue
Fire, fire
Damn, what a cliché
Quick, pour it out
Vent on me, baby, that's what I'm here for
That's what I lend an ear for
I'm confused between sex and love
I'm confused about trust and heat
I'm looking down at my limbs [?]
That thread count is sexy
It's me
I'm Earth
I'm holy fuckin' free

Get out of monotony
Get out of monotony
Yes, we fucking can
Yes, we fucking can

Understand
Understand
I'm learning, I'm learning
I'm learning, I'm learning
Focus
Focus

Hit or miss the colour of my favourite lover
I'm sucking in like nothing I've seen
Baby's got ideas, baby's got thought
That pattern my window like rain
I can't, I can't, I can't seem to know me the same

Moments makers
End up taken
Fake crusaders that give me
Shame
Shame
Shame

Get out of monotony
The feeling is over
The feeling is over
Yes, we fucking can
Yes, we fucking can

Understand
Understand
I'm learning, I'm learning
I'm learning, I'm learning
Focus
Focus

I've been waitin' for it
I've been waitin' for it
Do I wanna let this go all night?
Do I wanna let this go all night?
Do I wanna let this go all night?
Do I wanna let this go all night?
Do I wanna let this go all night?
