

A.D.D

alt.

I'm on another level
I'm tired, lost all sense of time and space
It's like a time bomb ticking in my skull, 'til I'm gone
I guess I'm just fucking sick of this

Can't keep my head above the water
I can't breathe, I'm going under
Heavy are my good intentions
Help me as I drown, I'm not myself

If only I could switch off
I feel like I could do anything
My eyes are heavy enough, I do not need the stress
I feel like it's taken enough, I'm holding on to everything that I have I'm losing grip of myself

Can't keep my head above the water
I can't breathe, I'm going under
Heavy are my good intentions
Help me as I drown, I'm not myself

I hear the world as it's shifting
I feel the air as it's lifting
I'm fearing the sirens
I feel the violence in silence

Bury it down!

Can't keep my head above the water
I can't breathe, I'm going under
Heavy are my good intentions
Help me as I drown

Can't keep my head above the water
I can't breathe, I'm going under
Heavy are my good intentions
Help me as I drown, I'm not myself
