Breathless alone
Cursing the poison
Coursing through my veins
You can smell the fear
Boiling my insides, coiling to strike again
To finish me, bringing me to the end

Cut the head off of the snake
There's permanence written in my veins
Paralysed as my body breaks
Mark my words, you won't see another day

Count the cost of your silence
How much to break your will?
Your only answer is violence
So I'm going in for the kill

Dead inside, a withered mind
A measured dose of death in your smile
With only moments left, I've got news for you
I'll bite back
I'll bite back

I'll smash your nest before it hatches
Cut off your head then bury the hatchet
There's room for you in this grave for two
When you're dead, with no casket

Cut the head off of the snake
There's permanence written in my veins
Paralysed as my body breaks
Mark my words, you won't see another day

With poisoned words you gained the earth
But your name is cursed
(Coursing through my veins)
So bite your tongue, the damage done
It's all you'll deserve (there's nothing left but pain)

Bite
Bite your tongue
Clamp down until your chest goes numb

Cut the head off of the snake
There's permanence written in my veins
Paralysed as my body breaks
Mark my words, you won't see another day
