

BETTER OFF LEAVING

alt.

I get it, you needed attention, I felt ya
You called me to tell me, it's over, it's broken
My heart is so heavy, when you said you're leaving
I can't help but feeling, my angels are your demons

And I'm drowning now
And I'm choking now, I've been pulled down
It's funny how you don't feel the same now
Seems funny how I think I lost you somehow

Take me away
Tear me apart like you want to
Take me away
Pull me apart like you always do

'Til I am nothing, I've lost so much strength
Cause I'm fine where I am now
'Til I am nothing, I've lost so much strength
In here

I get it, you needed attention, I felt ya
You called me to tell me, it's over, it's broken
My heart is so heavy, when you said you're leaving
I can't help but feeling, my angels are your demons

(I'm knowing that, knowing that, knowing it's best)
My angels are your demons
(I'm knowing that, knowing that, knowing it's best)
My angels are your demons

At the bottom of the deep blue sea, and I'm not drowning
I found where I am key, I've found my everything
At the bottom of this deep blue ocean
I found where I am key, I've found my everything
I hope you miss me
I hope you miss me

(I'm better off, better off leaving)
(I'm better off, better off leaving)
(I'm better off, better off leaving)
(I'm better off, better off leaving)

(I'm better off, better off leaving)
(I'm better off, better off leaving)
(I'm better off, better off leaving)
(I'm better off, better off leaving)

(I'm knowing that, knowing that, knowing it's best)
(I'm knowing that, knowing that, knowing it's best)
(I'm knowing that, knowing that, knowing it's best)
(I'm knowing that, knowing that, knowing it's best)
