A pedestal you're crowned upon I desire to pull you off from it
What choices do we have if we can't win either way

I see you in all of your pride, I hear you with every lie
'Cause I'm going to bury you, but not 'til I come to
And I'll take all of my time to breathe in our new life
'Cause we're going to bury you, but not 'til we come to

I want to see you begging for death, you've got a feeling you'r e better off dead
You're better off dead

I see you in all of your pride, I hear you with every lie
'Cause I'm going to bury you, but not 'til I come to
And I'll take all of my time to breathe in our new life
'Cause we're going to bury you, but not 'til we come to ('til I come to, 'til I come to, 'til I come to, 'til I come to

You're fucking better off dead
Blood is gonna run red from supreme to the weak Blood is gonna run red from supreme

I see you in all of your pride, I hear you with every lie
'Cause I'm going to bury you, but not 'til I come to
And I'll take all of my time to breathe in our new life
'Cause we're going to bury you, but not 'til we come to
