alt.

And I already know I'll never let this go
That I have you inked into my skin
A price that I have worn thin
I'm lost I begin to open

It's got so clear now that I can't see
It's got so bleary and I can't breathe

If heaven opened, it's nothing I've seen
Heavens lost me inside your grave
Hell, you've stalked me since I lost my way
Heavens lost me inside your grave

And I already know I'll never let this go
I'm falling apart in a heap
Sometimes its just better to leave
Sometimes its just better to leap

It's got so clear now that I can't see
It's got so bleary and I can't breathe

If heaven opened, it's nothing I've seen
Heavens lost me inside your grave
Hell, you've stalked me since I lost my way
Heavens lost me inside your grave
What a thought to ascertain

If heaven opened, it's nothing I've seen
Heavens lost me inside your grave
Hell, you've stalked me since I lost my way
Heavens lost me inside your grave
