WRAITH

alt.

It's turning into heresy, you transform to tragedy

Roll the dice with my faith and set the soul on fire
You say it's all in my head but what's your true desire
You plant the seeds of fear to sort the weeds from the flowers
You suffocate the weak to fill the pockets of the sour

It's turning into heresy
It's stripped me down to the bone
You transformed to tragedy and turned it into gold

I'm floating away, the wraith calls me by name
I'm floating away, to escape this world of hate

I feel the blood on my face as I suspend in darkness
I feel the call of the wraith, but it will not see triumph
I've played the waiting game and I got tired of the odds
The words they preach are lies of men just playing God

I'm floating away, the wraith calls me by name
I'm floating away, to escape this world of hate

Is there a pulse or are we mad?
I've lost the patience
Fear is God wearing a mask and its contagious, yeah

I've lost all my patience, got nothing to say
I'm floating away to escape, this world of hate

Fear is God wearing a mask

I'm floating away, the wraith calls me by name
I'm floating away, to escape this world of hate

I'm floating away
I'm floating away
I'm floating away
To escape, to escape this world of hate
