

Unholy Invasion

Altaria

Back at the place where it all begun.
I don't expect you to understand my calling.

It's crystal clear, now I'm running free.
I used to stand by your side just to see you falling.

Down into, a bottomless pit.

Clowns of the circus are standing by,
To collect the glory of nations.

Running around in a circle, telling lie after lie.
To protect the unholy invasion.

My mind's made up, I will face my fears.
Betrayal's present, but no one hears my warning.

So feel the love, into this kiss.

Clowns of the circus are standing by,
To collect the glory of nations.

Running around in a circle, telling lie after lie.
To protect the unholy invasion.

To protect the unholy invasion!

Clowns of the circus are standing by,
To collect the glory of nations.

Running around in a circle, telling lie after lie.
To protect the unholy invasion.

Clowns of the circus are standing by,
To collect the glory of nations.

Running around in a circle, telling lie after lie.
To protect the unholy invasion.

(Clowns of the circus)
