

Brand New Start

Alter Bridge

Against the sky
Streams of light call out to me and you
We leave as one, we've just begun
To find the solace we're due
This is a life we must choose

We will make a brand new start
From the pieces torn apart
The break of day is before us
Cast your sorrows to the wind
Let the highway take us in
As we escape the disorder

This desert road, that we call home
This is our destiny
We chase the setting sun
As we outrun a life of agony
God, how we ache to be free

We will make a brand new start
From the pieces torn apart
The break of day is before us
Cast your sorrows to the wind
Let the highway take us in
As we escape the disorder

We will make a brand new start
From the pieces torn apart
The break of day is before us
Cast your sorrows to the wind
Let the highway take us in
As we escape the disorder

We'll make our way
We'll make our way
We'll make our way
We'll make our way, oh, oh
