This is War

Alter Bridge

A brood of vipers, they are scheming as the West winds blow
They are conspiring from below
A raging fire from the depths of hell, a wicked foe
Unleash the tiger, take control

It's time to decide
Do not play the fool

So fight for your life, can't you see what's coming?
Fight for your mind, this is war
Fight from inside and believe in something
Don't compromise who you are

An army of shadows, they are waiting for the battle call
Bloodthirsty demons of the mind
They will unravel, if you let them, everything you are
And storm the castle from inside

So open your eyes

So fight for your life, can't you see what's coming?
Fight for your mind, this is war
Fight from inside and believe in something
Don't compromise who you are

Scheming, haunting, waiting, taunting
Taking every good man down

A raging fire from the depths of hell, a wicked foe
Unleash the tiger, take control

And fight for your life, can't you see what's coming?
Fight for your mind, this is war
Fight from inside and believe in something
Don't compromise who you are
