

Changing My Luck

Altered Images

A judgement so skillful
You could lose your mind
Your heartbeats in trouble
Need to find your own kind
Our friends electric
Are here and standing by
The power of the music
Will take you on your flight

I'm moving on up
I'm changing my luck
Cos enough is enough
I'm changing my luck
I'm moving on up
I'm changing my luck
Cos enough is enough

There's a long walk home now
Translucent tears in your blues eyes
A satellite of emotion
Circles your hidden pride
But your not going to go there
Cos your ready to change your life
A glorious choice now shines bright in plain sight

I'm changing my luck
I'm moving on up
I'm changing my luck
Cos enough is enough
I'm changing my luck

A crisis diverted
A realisation in time
The transmission of faith now
Are you ready for a brand new life
A judgement so skillful
I choice so divine
A heartbeat of hope rides
Inside your future mind

I'm changing my luck
I'm moving on up
I'm changing my luck
Cos enough is enough
I'm changing my luck

Heartbeat in trouble
