

Colour of My Dreams

Altered Images

The temptation sometimes to fade away
It overwhelms me but believe me I'm here to stay
The colour of my dreams are not just black and white
If you don't see me than your not worth my fight

I've been let down
I've been let down

I'm standing right here now
Prouder than proud
I'm in the light now
Louder than loud
I'm standing right here now
Toughing it out
I refuse to move a way
I'm standing right here now

The colour of my dreams
Are not just black and white
I've come too far to feel
That I've not earned my right
The psychedelic dreams of a girl
Who knows her way
If you don't see me
Then you're not worth my gaze

I've been let down
I've been let down

The fragile ties to a past that I can now forgive
My future fills me with a strength that I know exists
I've been lost and found
So, so many times
But the greatest thing I know is
I know how to survive

I've been let down
I've been let down

I'm standing right here now
Prouder than proud
I'm in the light now
Louder than loud

Toughing it out
I refuse to move a way
I'm standing right here now
