

Double Reflection

Altered Images

If that's your human race
Than look me in the face
And tell me it's not a game
To shame me on your list of pain

I will go out tonight
Sheltered in a favourite place
'Cause you don't have the right
To take me down tonight

It's a double reflection
A state of mind
A curious feeling
I won't walk the line
You need to be aware
I'm not your double dare
You don't have the right
You won't stop my night

It's a double reflection

If friendship is built on this
Your nature is on my list
'Cause your kind are so despised
By the kindness of mankind

So let me dispel the myth
That you will get a way with this
'Cause you don't have the right
To take me down tonight

It's a double reflection
A state of mind
A curious feeling
I won't walk the line
You need to be aware
I'm not your double dare
You don't have the right
You won't stop my night
You need to be aware
I'm not your double dare
You don't have the right
You won't stop my night

It's a double reflection

You need to be aware
I'm not your double dare
You don't have the right
You won't stop my night
You need to be aware
I'm not your double dare
You don't have the right
You won't stop my night
