

The Flame

Altered Images

You know there's gonna be
So many times you'll see
There is always going to be
Talk girl
Just walk a way today
It's not your game to play
Need to learn not to care now
You know you've got the key
A future guaranteed
A world full of adventure
You know you'll find your way
No matter what they say
There's need to look back now

I've been moving around
Searching my soul
For too long
It's time
I kicked back at life
And had some fun of my own
So hard to let go the line
That you're not enough as you are
Believe that you are the flame
Let your inner light glow

You are the flame
You are the flame
Let your inner light glow

Your life is not a dream
A story on a movie screen
It's your truth in motion
Your truth is here to stay
Your beauty everyday
So much to be glad for
You know there's gonna be
Many times you'll hear
Don't listen to the talk girl
It's not your game to play

Just walk away
'Cause you are the flame that inspires
I've been moving around
Searching my soul
For too long
It's time
I kicked back at life
And found some fun of my own
So hard to let go the line
That you're not enough as you are
Believe that you are the flame

You are the flame
