

Let's Forget

Altiyan Childs

Let's forget the rest
Let's forget the test
Let's forget the mystery
Or the ball that carries you and me
Let's forget the rock
Let's forget the pop
Let's try forgetting all of that

Let's forget the fact
That lust produces life
Let's forget the rumour
That the devil is the true creator
Let's forget the world
Let's forget the missing mass
Let's forget society's
Secret ones that are messing with me

And I, I
Just wanna be in your arms
When it all goes down
Here on me

Let's forget the lost
The pilgrims of love, that's the cost
Let's forget philosophy
And all that lines hold in between
Let's forget the patience
That I put into salvation
Let's forget the wars we fought
For ten thousand years or more

Let's forget the fact
That lust produces life
Let's forget the rumour
That the devil is the true creator
Let's forget the world
Let's forget the missing mass
Let's forget society's secret ones
Secret ones

'Cause I
Just wanna be in your arms
When it all goes down
Here on me

'Cause I
When it all goes down
Here on me

ooh

Forget the rest
And die with me tonight
