

Future

Aluna

Paralyzed, lifeless
But I wanna rise
Like a phoenix
Future is mine
I feel useless
But I'm gonna rise
'Til I'm sun-kissed

Heart is soaring
'Cause yesterday my grave was calling
And I don't know which way I'm going
But I'm not looking back
I'm not looking back no no

And I wait 'til the night comes
And I feel the power
Of all of my fears 'cause they can't hurt me now
Stronger from the ways that I've been knocked down
And I stood my ground

The future is mine
The future is mine
The future is mine
The future is mine
The future is mine
The future is mine

But I wanna rise
Like a phoenix
Future is mine
I feel useless
But I'm gonna rise
'Til I'm sun-kissed

The future is mine
The future is mine
The future is mine
The future is mine
The future is mine
The future is mine

And I wait 'til night comes
And I feel the power
Of all of my fears 'cause they can't hurt me now
Stronger from the ways that I've been knocked down
And I stood my ground

The future is mine
