

I've Been Starting To Love All The Things I Hate

Aluna

I've been making some real, real good mistakes
And I've been starting to love all the things I hate
Sweet, sweet jealousy
Sweet, sweet jealousy
You'll never be the death of me
I've been finding some real big things I lack Life gives me shit and my shit gonna give it right back
Sweet, sweet destiny
Sweet, sweet destiny
You'll never be my enemy

Throw it all out, throw it all out
It's a new day
Doesn't matter if you can't do it anyway
Do it anyway, do it anyway
Do it anyway, do it anyway
Do it anyway
Cut it out, cut it out
It's a poison in your veins
If it makes you feel this lame
'Cause it's a shame, it's a shame, it's a shame
It's a shame, it's a shame, it's a shame

I've been making some real, real good mistakes
And I've been starting to love all the things I hate
Sweet, sweet jealousy (Yeah, yeah)
Sweet, sweet jealousy (Yeah, yeah)
You'll never be the death of me (Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)
I've been finding some real big things I lack (Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)

It's a new day (Yeah)
Doesn't matter if you can't do it anyway (Yeah)
