Aluna

Starting to lose

You got me begging
For a way to lose you
'Cause I need that bitter taste
And I'm letting you go to waste

Somethings making me wanna abuse you
You're all the good things that I hate
And I'm starting to lose my patience

I need to hurt you
To make the balance
And you need to be cruel to
Give me some anger tonight
Because you're too much
Sugar, sugar, sugar
Baby you're too much
Sugar, sugar, sugar

I need to push this to get you over the edge
Because your goodness gives me a rush to the head
Because you're too much
Sugar, sugar, sugar
Oh yeah you're too much
Sugar, sugar, sugar

Are you my poison?
I feel your chemicals burning up
It's all that

Sugar, sugar, sugar
Sugar, sugar, sugar
Sugar, sugar, sugar
Sugar, sugar

I need a warning
Is this the rise before the fall
From all your
Sugar, sugar, sugar
Sugar, sugar, sugar
Sugar, sugar, sugar
Sugar, sugar

You got me craving for a way to forget you
I need a blow to the head
And I'm wishing that we never met
Your perfection is making me ruthless
If you were bad for me instead
I could shoot you and leave you for dead

I need to hurt you
To make the balance
And you need to be cruel to
Give me some anger tonight
Sugar, sugar, sugar

Baby you're too much
Sugar, sugar, sugar

I need to push this to get you over the edge
Because your goodness gives me a rush to the head
Sugar, sugar, sugar
Oh yeah you're too much
Sugar, sugar, sugar

Are you my poison?
I feel your chemicals burning up
It's all that

Sugar, sugar, sugar
Sugar, sugar, sugar
Sugar, sugar, sugar
Sugar, sugar

I need a warning
Is this the rise before the fall
From all your
Sugar, sugar, sugar
Sugar, sugar, sugar
Sugar, sugar, sugar
Sugar, sugar
