Going Through the Door

Alvin Lee

I don't care if you don't understand
Going through the door, yes I'm going through the door
I don't care if you don't hold my hand
Going through the door, yes I'm going through the door
I'm going through the door, cause I wanna go home
And it's sad to say she don't own me, But I'll keep on movin' o

I don't care if you don't give a damn
Going through the door, yes I'm going through the door
I don't care if you don't understand
Going through the door, yes I'm going through the door

I'm going through the door, cause I wanna go home
And it's sad to say she don't want me, But I'll keep on movin'
on

I don't care just what you think of me
Gonna be free, yes I'm gonna be free
I don't care to be a fantasy
Gonna be free, just wait and see
Gonna be free, like the sky and the sea
And it's sad to say she don't love me, but I'll keep on movin'
on
Yes, its sad to say it's now over, but I'll keep on movin' on
