

The Darkest Night

Alvin Lee

The darkest night, can seem so bright
My love for you, will see me through
Into your eyes, I see your love return - to me

Though we're apart, you're in my heart
No need to cry - I will get by
By my side, my moonlight way is clear - to me

Though I've traveled down life's highways
I've never been this way before
And now I see that love, can turn the key to any door

The darkest night, can seem so bright
My love for you, will see me through
Into your eyes, I see your love return - to me
