

Avalanche

Always Never

I've been beside myself
Floating back and forth (back and forth)
It's got me wondering
What this is really worth?
She gives me all her love
The star in my skies
That vanishes, before the sunrise

Hear the phone ring oh my god is it true?
Tell me
I need something that will hold my heart through
Please no
This isn't something that I signed up to
But it's not like you choose who you choose

Who you choose
Who you choose

Do you feel
Earth shake beneath ya?
When you're on fire
There's nothing you can't do
Don't hold me back
About to go off like an avalanche
Like an avalanche
