

I Tried

Always Never

I tried all night, I'm ashamed
'Cause without you, I've been losing my mind
It's fine, this time
But I still need you here in my life
Decide if you'd ride
Oh, baby, ya

Are you gonna ride for me?
Would you ever lie for me?
Would you still cry for me?
I want you to try for me, yeah

It seems to happen all the time, no
You leave me out to dry, no
You've been sneaking on the side, no
You've been playing
And I'm done waiting

Are you gonna ride for me?
Would you ever lie for me?
Would you still cry for me?
I want you to try for me, yeah

So this time, it's goodbye
Don't you cry
It's finally making sense to me now
You've crossed every line
No, I don't need you here in my life
So don't call and don't write
Oh, baby, no

I don't wanna hear from you
I'm sick of being used
And, yes, I've thought it through
It's time for someone new, yeah
