

Need Somebody

Always Never

The shadows in my home, belong to you
That's why I need to leave here soon
A knife in my back, still stays in place
I'm bleeding out, how long will it take

When I wake up without warning
I can't catch my breath
Like the night that I left
And smoking became habit
I distanced myself
From the pain that I felt

Walking alone
Nowhere to go
Can't see the lights
Running in a loop forever
It's been some time
Won't leave my mind
Got no one else
I just really need somebody

Somebody
Somebody
I just really need somebody

Months like this went by, and no one knew
How deep I sank, I hid the truth
Silence in my head, is all I want
But all I get, are anxious thoughts

When I wake up in the morning
Still can't catch my breath
But I feel less on edge
When photos became ashes
I found who I lost
It was me all along

Walking alone
Nowhere to go
Can't see the lights
Running in a loop forever
It's been some time
Won't leave my mind
Got no one else
I just really need somebody

Somebody
Somebody
I just really need somebody
Somebody
Somebody
