

Nerve

Always Never

Seven in the morning
You left without a warning
Something kinda odd
Cause I feel so clueless
We fight without emotion
Going through the motions
Feeling kinda lost
Now we ain't so lucid
Damn

Do anything for ya
But I should just ignore ya
Oh no no no no

You've got the nerve
To talk all this shit
Baby is this what you wanted now
Come back to earth
Your heads in the clouds
Babe when'd you get so heartless oh

Na na, na na na na, yeah
Na na, na na na na, yeah

You said you never loved me
Put yourself above me
Tell me what's the deal
Cause it feels so ugly
Now I'm in the fast lane
Leave you in the past, wait
You could never change
But I wasn't even asking
Damn

Do anything for ya
But I should just ignore ya
Oh no no no no

You've got the nerve
To talk all this shit
Baby is this what you wanted now
Come back to earth
Your heads in the clouds
Babe when'd you get so heartless oh

Oh you got the nerve
To talk all this shit
Yeah, is this what you wanted?
Yeah come back to earth
Your heads in the clouds
Oh when'd you get so heartless

You've got the nerve
To talk all this shit
Baby is this what you wanted now
Come back to earth

Babe when'd you get so heartless oh

Na na, na na na na, yeah

Na na, na na na na, yeah
