

Tragedy

Always Never

Need a little bit of green
Just to lay my head to sleep
We've let each other go
But my mind still intervenes

Can't seem to get you
Out of my mind
Can't seem to remember
What it's like to feel fine

Need a little bit of green
Just to lay my head to sleep
We've let each other go
But my mind still intervenes

Can't seem to get you
Out of my mind
Can't seem to remember
What it's like to feel fine

Oh my, oh my
The things this does to me (yup, yup)
Oh my, oh my
Feeling like I can't breathe
Oh my, oh my
This is a tragedy (yup, yup)
Oh my, oh my
Oh my, oh my

Head feeling heavy
Haven't slept in days and days and days
Eyes wide open
This feeling stays it stays it stays
True to this feeling
About these distant ways
Not much of a believer
But this time I pray

Oh my, oh my
The things this does to me (yup, yup)
Oh my, oh my
Feeling like I can't breathe
Oh my, oh my
This is a tragedy (yup, yup)
Oh my, oh my
Oh my, oh my
