

Don't Need Nothing

Aly & AJ

When you sleep through your alarm
Nothing is further from your mind
Even your hopes and dreams can don't bother, don't bother
So don't lose your pace, don't fall behind

A touch of the beat
Gets you up on your feet
Gets you out and then into the sun
A touch of the beat
Gets you out and then into the sun

A touch of the beat
Gets you up on your feet
Gets you out and then into the sun
A touch of the beat
Gets you out and then into the sun

You know the devil's never far behind
But he isn't welcome here so don't bother, don't bother

A touch of the beat
Gets you up on your feet (I don't need nothing at all)
Gets you out and then into the sun
A touch of the beat
Gets you out and then into the (I don't need nothing at all)

A touch of the beat
Gets you up on your feet (I don't need nothing at all)
Gets you out and then into the sun
A touch of the beat
Gets you out and then into the sun (I don't need nothing at all)

Don't need nothing
Don't need nothing, don't need nothing
Don't need nothing, don't need nothing
Don't need nothing, don't need nothing
Don't need nothing, don't need nothing
Don't need nothing, don't need nothing (I'm over turning over, I'm ?)
Don't need nothing, don't need nothing (I'm over turning over, I'm ?)

Nothing, nothing, nothing, nothing, nothing
Nothing, nothing, nothing, nothing, nothing
Nothing, nothing, nothing, nothing, nothing

A touch of the beat
Gets you up on your feet
Gets you out and then into the sun
A touch of the beat
Gets you out and then into the sun

Don't need nothing, I don't need nothing

A touch of the beat
Gets you up on your feet (I don't need nothing at all)
Gets you out and then into the sun
A touch of the beat
Gets you out and then into the sun (I don't need nothing at all)

Don't need nothing
