

If I could lasso you
I'd do it from the sky
I'd wait till half past noon
When the sun shines, sunshine
If I could lasso you
I'd do it from the clouds
I'd paint a world for you
Where the sun shines, sunshine

Never took you for a dime a dozen
See, I've been waiting on something
To make my move when the timing's right
I don't take this lightly
I look more fragile than I might be
I hold my rope in my fist real tight

I'd get away with your heart
And I'd make it look easy
I'd get away with your heart
And I'd make it look easy, make it look easy

If I could lasso you
I'd choose a mountaintop
I'd even bring the moon
When it shines bright, shines bright
If I could lasso you
I'd choose a valley ridge
Under the harvest moon
When it shines bright, shines bright

Never took you for a dime a dozen
See, I've been waiting on something
To make my move when the timing's right
I don't take this lightly
I look more fragile than I might be
I hold my rope in my fist real tight

I'd get away with your heart
And I'd make it look easy
I'd get away with your heart
And I'd make it look easy, make it look easy

I'd get away with your heart
And I'd make it look easy

I'd get away with your heart
And I'd make it look easy, make it look easy
I'd get away with your heart
And I'd make it look easy, make it look easy
