

Listen!!!

Aly & AJ

After long enough
My lips grow cold
I can call your bluff
But it just gets old

I tried to empathize
But you're so dismissive
Night after night
I express
What I feared
From the start

That your heart would never
LISTEN!!!
I'm feeling like I'm a hostage here
It's clear something went
MISSING!!!
I might be lost but I know my way out

You can turn on a dime
Even when I'm careful
I tell myself all the time
That you're just forgetful

I tried to empathize
Still you're so dismissive
Night after night
I express
What I feared
From the start

That your heart would never
LISTEN!!!
I'm feeling like I'm a hostage here
It's clear something went
MISSING!!!
I might be lost but I know my way out

That your heart would never
LISTEN!!!
I'm feeling like I'm a hostage here
It's clear something went
MISSING!!!
I might be lost but I know my way out
