

Silver Deliverer

Aly & AJ

Driving over to Wonderland
Got me wondering if I burn my plans
Heading for a future that I can't see
Every lookout spot I've been Making me feel lost again
Under fallen eucalyptus leaves

Silver deliverer in a time of need
Can I borrow your wings?
Silver deliverer in a time of need
Can I stand on your wings?

Moving out of the canyon, well
It isn't something that I planned on, but Overnight, it sorta happened to me

One day, it's a home, and then the next thing you know
It's a photo wrapped in plastic on your backseat

Silver deliverer in a time of need
Can I borrow your wings?
Silver deliverer in a time of need
Can I stand on your wings?

When you come down from the sky
Will you deliver us?
One last promise in the night
You will deliver us

Silver deliverer in a time of need
Can I borrow your wings?
Silver deliverer in a time of need
Can I stand on your wings?
