

Slow Dancing

Aly & AJ

It's been days and weeks and months
Feels like forever since I saw you
I'm forgetting how you felt now
I've never had this much time on my hands
Move the kitchen table out to the lawn
Roll up the rug the stereo's on
All I can imagine is being in your arms
I want you to know
I don't need anything fancy
I just need me and you slow dancing
Hell's bending keeping me captive
Heaven's here it's right where you're standing
Slow dancing
Ooh
Ooh
I've got my reasons to complain
And they're tangled in red white and blue
The battle outside is blazing
And all I'm thinking about is you
Move the kitchen table out to the lawn
Roll up the rug the stereo's on
All I can imagine is being in your arms
I want you to know
I don't need anything fancy
I just need me and you slow dancing
Hell's bending keeping me captive
Heaven's here it's right where you're standing
Slow dancing with you
All I'm thinking about is you
Dancing
All I'm thinking about is you
All I'm thinking about is you
All I'm thinking about is you, ooh
All I'm thinking about is you
All I'm thinking about is you, ooh
All I'm thinking about is you
All I'm thinking about is you
All I'm thinking about is you
All I'm thinking about is you
