Sunchoke

Aly & AJ

I can't take more hits, I'll disassociate from it
I should face my shit, I'm uncomfortable as it is
I've got things to do, that I still haven't gotten round to
So I don't count on them, instead I'm just a fugitive

I'm on the run
I'm so mad at myself I could choke the sun
I feel the heat
And it's burning up the soles of my feet

Out of sight, out of mind, that's the way I wanna live
But we all know the drill, so instead I'm just a fugitive

I'm on the run (I'm on the run)
I'm so mad at myself I could choke the sun
I feel the heat (I feel the heat)
And it's burning up the soles of my feet

I know these days are never easy
I just keep on falling, free-falling as fast as I can
I know the come-down's never easy
I just keep on falling, free-falling to where I began

I can't take more hits, I'll disassociate from it
I should face my shit, I'm uncomfortable as it is
I've got things to do, that I still haven't gotten round to
So I don't count on them, instead I'm just a fugitive

I'm on the run (I'm on the run)
I'm so mad at myself I could choke the sun
I feel the heat (I feel the heat)
And it's burning up the soles of my feet

I know these days are never easy
I just keep on falling, free-falling as fast as I can
I know the come-down's never easy
I just keep on falling, free-falling to where I began

I just keep on falling, free-falling as fast as I can
I just keep on falling, free-falling to where I began
I just keep on falling, free-falling as fast as I can
I just keep on falling, free-falling to where I began
