

Not Always

Ama Lou

If you wanna try, I've got no chains
And I'll see your lies if you won't say
What I'm tryna tell, it works both ways
I'll get down and cry if you don't
And I am constantly trying to be less like my own kind

Even when I held you down, you shitted on me
Even when I'm not around, you try to hide me

Seems so much better for you
Could it be better for your down?
I try to work harder for you
Even when you're wrong
But it wasn't always
But it wasn't always
Your talent is hard
But it will leave you

They don't get my vibe, it is rosé
Try to hold me down, I will rotate
You can't tell me right if it's not safe
Heaven not to hell, time to procreate
And I'm the best at my lies you trust in, I
You weren't the only one that died

Even when I held you down, you shitted on me
Even when I'm not around, you try to hide me

Seems so much better for you
Could it be better for your down?
I try to work harder for you
Even when you're wrong
But it wasn't always
But it wasn't always
Your talent is hard
But it will leave you

Well most of the time
Well you were the best of me, believe that
Well I really doubt and so it's like
How many times, how many times will you go out?
Drowning ain't the best option
Do you trust me now? Yeah

Seems so much better for you
Could it be better for your down?
I try to work harder for you
Even when you're wrong
But it wasn't always
But it wasn't always
Your talent is hard
But it will leave you
